Garrick

"SO LONG LETTY." Morose's most successful musical farce, comes to Garrick this week. The comedy of domestic life is provided with a complete new scenic investment and elaborate costumes. The farce is a travesty of trial marriage and affinity ideas, the plot dealing with the comical results of the street-vendor on a California beach, who got the idea that they were married and plot to rearrange the matrimonial alignment by way of a court case.

To the above will be added a novelty orchestra consisting of saxophones, banjos and mandolins, which will be used to augment the regular house orchestra.

MADISON

Harold Lockwood is again to be shown on the Madison screen in a new romantic comedy adapted from the novel, "Love Me For Yourself," which was the basis of the Broadway success, "The Love of a Foolish Girl." This is the famous "yellow ticket" which the Russian pulled out of the pocket of the street and handing them to a fate worse than death.

Gaiety While Dying.

Antoine Watteau, one of France's foremost artists, while dying of his celebrated deceptive painter while dying of the white man's scourge, the sprang from humble and poverty-stricken surroundings and was forced to work on the brink of starvation for the greater part of his thirty-seven years. Just as his fame rose to national proportions his tubercular condition became worse and he worked desperately during his last few years to complete as much work as possible before he died.

To Save the Eyes.

To avoid straining the eyes a person of normal vision should hold the book to be read 15 to 18 inches from the face and on a level with the eyes. Never hold a book low while reading. The strain on the eyes is much greater when the book is held in the lap. If you make a practice of reading while lying down you should be careful to hold your book at the proper angle.

Tallow and Ink.

If ink is split on the tallowcloth immediately move it to a candle taking out of the tallow, spread it over the ink patch and leave it to dry. Afterward wash the tallowcloth and all traces of ink will disappear.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

If you're the knower that gains satisfaction in your confidence.

Large crowds serve the good purpose of teaching us how trivial our little ones are.

VENISON DAYS.

This delicious game is once more to be enjoyed.

The steaks broiled and served with gravy made from any sweet fat cannot be improved upon.

Roast of Venison.

Any portion of the venison may be used, but steaks from the upper round are the choicest. Cut the steak in serving sized pieces, roll in flour and brown in hot fat.

Add broth made from the trimmings and bones of the venison and let simmer about an hour until tender.

For each pint of liquid allow a fourth of a cupful of flour, half a teaspoonful of salt, one fourth of a teaspoonful of paprika, all stirred in cold liquid to a smooth paste, then add to the meat, stir until boiling, cover and let simmer ten minutes. Have ready baked or boiled sweet potatoes; press them through a ricer, add butter and a little hot milk is added, then beat thoroughly over the fire.

Pile the potato around the meat on a platter and garnish with steamed prunes in groups of three. Spiced grape jelly is especially delicious to serve with venison.

Breaded Venison.

Cut slices half an inch thick from a round of venison that has hung at least a week. Cut the pieces in serving sized pieces, dip in crumbs then in beaten egg diluted with milk and again in crumbs. Set to cook in hot fat and when well browned turn and brown on the other side. Let cook slowly for a while to be sure the meat is well done.

Venison may be wrapped in bits of bacon, well seasoned and browned, then served with a sauce of white wine, butter and onion.

You Don't Have to Sacrifice Quality In Order to Save $10

Bond's Clothing Comes to You Direct From Our Own New York Factory

The saying is effected for you because it costs us less to sell Bond's Clothes. Our factory makes but one quality; you'd pay a retailer $10 more for it than you pay, Bond. It is hardly necessary to enumerate the many expense items we eliminate by selling direct instead of through retailers.

Investigate Bond's Claims

We're just waiting for the chance to prove that Bond's Clothes live up to Bond's claims. How could it be otherwise if we expect to continue expanding?

We are building for the future and want you to know we are sincere in our belief that Bond's $17½ Clothes DO save you $10—as investigation and comparison will show you.
