

OES. To Serve*Threshers Meal

Farmington Order of Eastern Stars 239 is ready to serve the third annual Threshers Dinner during the Farmington Founders Festival days.

The dinner will be the end result of weeks of planning by Dorothy Matron Bessie White and her committee in charge of the arrangements.

The ladies will don aprons, and armed with rolling pins, be at the Farmington Masonic Temple on Friday, from 5-8 p.m., to serve a family style chicken dinner complemented by homemade biscuits and homemade pies.

Order of the day will be "all you can eat."

APRONS ON -- On go the aprons and out comes the rolling pins as the Farmington OES 239 ladies prepare for the annual Threshers Dinner July 25 from 5-8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. From left are: Rose Mahaney, Bessie White, Jane Valerius and Hazel Laughlin.

DeMolay Moms*Ready To Sell

Chairman Mary Turton announces that all is ready for the Farmington Founders Festival DeMolay Mother's Club Booth.

For the third straight year, the Mother's Club will offer beautiful egg jewel boxes along with many other handmade items such as pillow cases and aprons.

Bargain Hunters

Although the festival means fun and food, it also means bargains. And bargain hunters will have a three-day holiday by visiting the gay sidewalk sales in both the Demery Shopping Center and Downtown Farmington Center.

Baseball Thrives During Festival

Baseball will receive prime attention during the 1969 Farmington Founders Festival.

A slow-pitch elimination tournament, old-timers hardball game, minor and major league all star games, and a girls softball game will give the festival a distinct flavor of our national pastime.

THE SLOWPITCH elimination tournament will begin Friday, July 25, at 6 p.m. on the City Park and Knights of Columbus ball diamonds.

The slowpitch championship elimination will continue on Saturday starting at 7 p.m. on the K of C field.

Two all-star contests on Saturday, July 26.

The minor league all-star tilt is scheduled for 3 p.m. at the city park to be followed by the major league contest starting at 7 p.m.

AFTER THE Little Leaguers clear the field, the diamonds will be taken over by the girls for the girls softball game beginning at 8:30 p.m., also in city park.

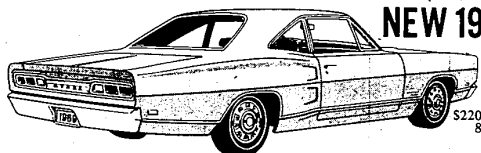

Friday night, starting at 6 p.m., the old-timers will get together for their annual game and reunion at the Farmington Senior High ball park across from the Elks Lodge on Orchard Lake Rd.

Players Join Festival

A new participant in Farmington Founders Festival activities this year will be the Clarenceville Summer Theatre Players.

The Players will be carrying a large banner in Saturday's parade and will operate a concession stand to sell bake-goods and candy.

The Clarenceville Summer Theatre Players is a group of 25 students who are being instructed in all areas of professional theatre for at least six weeks.

In fact, their training period ends on July 27 the day after the festival ends.

The first two weeks of their training were spent in daily workshop sessions covering in-depth studies of acting as well as production plus rehearsing short excerpts which have been presented to the public each Sunday evening.

This year's final production will be "Pillow Talk" which will be presented during the festival on July 25, 26 at 8 p.m. in the Clarenceville High School auditorium. Tickets are $1.50 at the door.

Get Your Spot

Saturday's Founders Festival parade will be drawing thousands of spectators so each resident should lay their strategic plans now to obtain the best viewing spot.

Formation will be at the Grand River Drive - in Theatre with the route going west on Grand River to Farmington Rd. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday.
