Resident Directs UF Region

FAIRMINGTON
Mrs. William G. Blakeney, who is associated with the husband in Farmington, Blakeney's Ranch House, 28333 Grand River, has accepted a leadership post in the 1969 Torch Drive residential campaign.

Mrs. Blakeney will serve as a region chairman responsible for the house-to-house, "Thanks a Million" class in Northwest Detroit. She will be responsible for enrolling, training and organizing the hundreds of volunteers needed for the door-to-door campaign scheduled from Nov. 14 through Nov. 6.

which annually brings in more than $1 million of the Torch Drive total, provides every household with information about the UF and its nearly 200 services.

It also gives homemakers, the retired and the self-employed -- all those not contacted at their place of work -- an opportunity to contribute.

Mrs. Blakeney's appointment was announced by Mrs. P. David Vincent, of Northville, who is serving as a Torch Drive section chairman for the campaign.

Czubiak Heads Library Board

Thomas P. Czubiak has been elected president of the Farmington District Library board of trustees. Albert P. Harzog, former treasurer, is the new vice president and Ernest E. Sauer treasurer. Mary F. Allison continues as secretary, a post she has held since March 1968.

The newly-named region chairman is a member of the Michigan Restaurant Association, Wayne State University Alumni Association, Women of Wayne, the Women's City Club and the American Red Cross. She has worked in many earlier Torch Drives as a neighborhood and area chairman. She holds a bachelor of science degree in business economics.

Mrs. Blakeney and her husband, president of the Farmington restaurant, have four grown children.

MRS. WILLIAM G. BLAKENEY

Ed Board To Improve Credibility

Farmington's Board of Education has established a public relations committee to promote better communication between the board and the electorate. Aldo Vagnuzzi has been named chairman. Ken Perrin and Richard Peters are the other two committee members.

The board also realigned memberships on its four standing committees:

Finance -- John Washburn (chairman), Gary Lichtman, Richard Frankel.
Building and Sites -- Perrin (chairman), Washburn, Peters, Safety -- Dr. Sanford Bloomberg (chairman), Vagnuzzi, Washburn.
