Patriotism Demands that You Spend---But Spend Wisely

It is not true patriotism to hoard your money. The country needs it in circulation to carry on the war.

Don't spend less money, but spend it more carefully. Avoid waste.

Be productive. Make your own clothes at home. By selecting your styles from the Butterick Quarterly for Spring, and by using Butterick Patterns, which reproduce these styles, you will be more smartly gowned than ever, and at the same time be serving your country.

All the latest Paris styles are in this beautiful book for your selection.
