Then the Bishop Understood.
Approps of the Phillips Brooks anniversary, the great bishop took note of things in his fadlity walks about town. One day he saw a gang of street department employees using their boes, picks and shovels in such a languid and belsurely manner that the felt inoved to childe them for their slottleness.

"My friends, are you supposed to be working for the city of Baston?" Inquired the bishop overling for $2.50 a day, please your reverence," said the spokesman of the rang.

The bishop passed on.

CUSTER DIVISION DWINDLING AWAY

BE SENT OVERSEAS FOR

Every Cantonment In Country—New Draft Must Fill Units.

Camp Custer. Battle Creek—Unless the war department equases its shearing process her the Eighty-fifth division will soon have dwindled to an unrecognizable skeleton, with little apparent chance of rehabilitation except through another draft. Quster (diffects believe they see in the steady, outpouring of troops from the camp evidence of preparation to reliferore the allied armies against the modet shring drive. In lack of official data they assume to use a desire on the part of the war department to sadaty the demands of the Allies for men and at the same dime retain in this country the organizations which have been built up since has September in the same of the same they are in large as the best of the same traction and the same time that they are in large as the best of the same traction and the custer in faintly is to be moved out at ones. While this may not be it use the present manner of repletion will soon result in a rifleties camp.

Since sail the national army canton-means in the country are receiving the same treatment; it is the level as mergency division is being foreast and mergency division is being foreast mental in the country are receiving the same treatment; it is the level an emergency division is being foreasted over seas. Whether this is the policy of the department or only the result of an emergency remains to be seen.

The war has not been won," he said.

He who proposes peace now either does not see the stakes for such the salles are fighting, or he wishes the German military autocracy still to control the destilies of all of us as to peace or war, Those who favor permanent world peace must oppose with might and main the proposals for peace at this juncture in the war, whether made in socialistic councils, in pro-German conferences, or by Pope Benedict.

The Allies are fighting for a first the future of civilization.

Their purpose is to lead of Germany policy and foreign policy of Germany that looks to the maintenance of a military and naval machine, with its hir ringer preparation for use against her neighbors."
