Spills His Milk

Spills His Milk
Archie Cairns, who draws milk for the Warner Dairy Co., had an accident last Monday as he was coming to town that tild not tend to "Hooverize" greatiy.
Coming down the hill between Tom Gibson's and Mer. Wilson's the reach of his wagon's broke and let the front of the "wagon' hox down to the ground, spilling nearly the entire load of milk and rendering Mr. Cairns unson's scious for a short time, during which his three horses tan away.
The load contained 39 cans of milk, and only about 200 points were saved. Mr. Cairns was not badly injured, and no great damage was done, outside the loss of the milk.
