SUDDENLY REVISED HIS CODE

Exponent of Masculine Street-Car

Courtesy Felt Himself Justified Making Exception.

The stout man on the Wade Park car turned to his companion.

"Tre formulated a new code of masculine courtesy," he said, "and pledged myself to observe it. When I am forstudiet enough to get a sent in a car, I haing onto it—with three exceptions.
I'll give it up to an elderly woman, to a woman carrying a child and to a sick person. I draw the line at thesel exceptions. It's my street car courtesy code, revised to date and in line with prevailing conditions," He stoped suddenly and stared at a
