HOGS PROTECTED, PEOPLE NEGLECTED

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS SPENT ANNUALLY IN EFFORT TO CHECK HOG CHOLERA.

VENEREAL DISEASE UNNOTICED

Recent investigations disclose need of drastic action to stamp out "Third Great Plague."

Leaning, Mich.—Michigan has expended thousands of dollars to eliminate hog cholera and when it has been necessary to kill infected hogs in order to stop the disease the state has reimbursed the owner of the hog a certain percentage of his loss. This money comes from the state treasury and is ultimately apportioned among every taxpayer in Michigan.

No one has ever complained over this practice. In fact the activities of the state along this line have received the active co-operation and support not only of the farmers, but of the city folks as well who have recognized the campaign against hog cholera as necessary for the perpetuation of the nation's food supply.

Eliminate Venereal Diseases.

Now, however, the state of Michigan, through its board of health, is engaged in another campaign which has for its ultimate goal the elimination of venereal diseases. The farmer being only too well known quickly one tubercular cow will infect an entire herd. He has also learned to his sorrow that one case of hog cholera may wipe out an entire drove.

Medical men know only too well that a person afflicted with a venereal disease may spread the infection among an entire community. Recognizing that these diseases are not entirely taken in time, the War Preparedness Board has appropriated funds for the state board of health to begin its campaign against the "Third Great Plague."

The War Preparedness Board is composed of Governor Albert E. Stepper, Secretary of state Coleman C. Vaughan, Auditor General O. B. Fuller, State Treasurer Samuel Odell and Attorney General Alex. J. Greenback. Each of these state officers is heartily in sympathy with the crusade against venereal diseases, and when the proposed plan was outlined by Dr. Richard H. Cline, secretary of the state board of health, the War Preparedness Board unanimously voted the necessary money.

Draft Disposes Need of Action.

The initial steps were taken shortly after the discovery was made that out of the first quota of men sent to Camp Custer from various Michigan points, more than 400 were suffering from venereal disease. These boys did not get the disease at camp. They were infected when Uncle Sam called them into the federal service.

Physicians Must Report.

Heretofore physicians had not been required to report venereal diseases coming to their attention. The state board of health declared gonorrhea and syphilis to be dangerous communicable diseases, and every physician is required to report each case immediately to the state board of health.

Since the first of November more than 2,500 cases have been reported to the state board of health from various points in the state. Druggists have agreed not to sell venereal remedies, except on prescription by a physician, and in this manner practically every case sooner or later comes under the care of a doctor.

CHURCH NOTES

Salem Evangelical
Rev. A. C. Stange will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45, eastern time, in the Clarenceville German church.

The Farmington Ladies Aid meets on the first Wednesday of each month at the parsonage.

Universalist Church

It was very gratifying to the church members and the pastor, Dr. W. A. Moore, to see such a large congregation out Sunday afternoon to listen to the interesting discourse on the subject "The Certainty of Just Retribution For Sin," which, according to the principles of Universalism, he handled in a very able manner.

As the Doctor does not leave Detroit before the middle of April, Farmington people will hear him again in two weeks from last Sunday.

Methodist Church

Rev. James Priestley, Minister.
We expect great things on Easter day. The early morning service at 6:30 will be full of interest to all. The topic for this meeting will be, "What New Hope Does Easter Bring to Me?" Make the service even better than last year.

At the morning hour of worship the pastor will preach on the subject, "An Easter Idyl." The spirit of the Easter time is the need of today. Let us gather in goodly numbers Sunday morning and make a memorable Easter time. Good music.

The Progressive class held their monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. McGee. There was a good attendance, and a most enjoyable time was had. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. Miller; vice-president, Mrs. K. H. McGee; secretary, Mrs. Nina Whipple; treasurer, Mrs. L. Schroeder.

The Sunday school is progressing finely. We are anxious to make Sunday a record day—we have reached the standard set for Easter; let us go far beyond it Sunday.

In the evening the Easter program will be given. It is entitled "Immortality," and it is a fine presentation of a glorious theme. You must come early to get a seat. Come to every service and get the real Easter joy. On account of the special program the song service will not be held this week.

Thursday, April 4th, an illustrated lecture will be given on the subject of "China." It is equal to any of the lectures we have had before. Make your plans to be present.

At the morning service next Sunday a number will unite with the church; will you be among the number? If you are without a church home we will welcome you.

An engine that wrings from gas more power than was ever taken out of gas before—through its "Hot-Spot" and "Ram's-Horn" Manifold—Chalmers devices.
[Image of a Chalmers car]
Tests of exhaust vapors have shown weaknesses in many engines. By such tests you can always tell how good an engine is.
In the great Chalmers engine so very little in the way of unused or unburned gas comes out of the exhaust as to be almost negligible. The gas is used up—all of it—in the Chalmers.
The moment it passes from the throat of the carburetor it strikes the now noted "Hot-Spot" here it is heated and "cracked-up" and then rushed on to the combustion chambers via the "Ram's-Horn" Manifold.
When the spark touches it off the gas is translated a power such as a gas engine has never known, all the brute force imaginable, yet tamed down into a softness that is as smooth as deep water.
Once you play with it with your right foot you will be amazed at the thrill it'll give you.
