(By VIRGINIA TERHUNE VAN DE WATER of the Vigilantes) A good woman was discussing the rules of the food administration. "I am deling a lot for my country," she said, "but there are certain trifles that I do not intend to give up. Such as white bread and bacon." "No," she said in response to my astonished look, "I mean to have white bread when I want It! Why should! I like white bread the sould be a such as the soulders and others substituted? Win the War by Preparing the Land Sowing the Seed and Producing Bigger Crops

Work in Joint Effort the Soil of the United States and Canada

The Food Controllers of the United States and Canada are asking for greater food production. Scarcely 100,000,000 bushels of wheat are available to be sent to the allies overseas before the crop harvest. Upon the efforts of the United States and Canada rests the burden of supply.
