Cap'n Warren's Wards By Joseph C. Lincoln

(Copyright by D. Appleton & Co.)

CAP'N WARREN DECIDES TO ACCEPT HIS BROTHER'S TRUST—SYLVESTER IS PLEASED IF SOME OTHERS ARE NOT.

Synopsia.—Atwood Grutes, New York inwyer, gnes to South Dens-boro, Cape Cod, to see Cappian Elisha Warren. Caught in a ferfile storm while on the way, be melets Cap'n Warren by accident and goes with the latter to his home. The lawyer informs Cap'n Warren that his brother, whom he had not seen for eighteen years, has died that his brother, whom he had not seen for eighteen years, has died and named him as guarding or his two children, Caroline saged twenty, and Stophen, aged nineteen. The captain tells Graves he will go to New York and look over the situation before deciding whether he will accept the trust. The captains arrival in New York causes consternation among his wards and their aristocraite friends. The captain makes friands with James' Floerason; a reporter; then he consults with Sylvester, head of Graves, firm.
