WHEN THE TREATY OF PEACE IS MADE

WHEN the time comes to make a treaty of peace to end this war, we must have in the Senate, the place where treaties are ratified, men of the highest ability, the broadest experience, the best judgment and the most pronounced Americanism. Our future will be in the balance. Every man, woman and child will be affected—each one of us will be directly or indirectly concerned by what is then done. There must be no peace without victory. The victory so dearly won by our boys on the field of battle must be defended and safeguarded at the Council Board of the Nations.
