

Livonian Sentenced In Assault

A Livonia man who was arrested on an assault charge by Farmington police after a July 29 altercation was sentenced in Municipal Court Wednesday to serve four weeks in the city jail. A companion who was similarly charged pleaded not guilty.

Orin H. Laabrook, 17, of 14811 Ruff, Livonia, pleaded guilty when he appeared before Judge Dennis J. Phelan and was given the staggered jail term.

Terry L. Tarr, 22, a Taylor resident, was released on $50 personal bond after entering a plea of not guilty. His trial was set for Aug. 27.

The two were arrested after allegedly assaulting two 15-year-old boys near a party store on Farmington Rd. near Eight Mile Rd.

Cadet At Camp

Briar Hill Notes

July 15 found Kay and Al Norton in New York City meeting their daughter, Pat, who was returning from over a year abroad, and her German "sister," Baerbel Rosenbaum, at whose home she has been living.

They went to the home of the Hartmans of Princeton, N.J., and former residents of Briar Hill. They did lots of sight-seeing in the general area of New York City and planned to go on to Washington, D.C., but the heat was so terrific, they came back to Michigan and right up to Walloon Lake for a week. Pat's brother Ray and his new bride came up to spend a few days with all of them.

The girls are now busy with decisions on college as Baerbel will now be with the Nortons for the next year. I know Pat found life in Koblenz a rich and rewarding experience—let's hope Baerbel will feel the same when she returns home next year.

Arthur Bourgeois, father of Mrs. Walter Nieheiser, of 22449 Lilia, passed away July 28 at the age of 82. We met the grand gentleman in 1960 when Mrs. and Mr. Bourgeois were visiting here to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. Bourgeois' funeral was held near Paris, France. Our deepest condolences go to his family.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD MILLER of 23197 Hawthorne, and their youngsters, Rick, Debra, Judy and Timmy just returned from a two-week vacation in northern Michigan. They headquartered at Sault Ste Marie. They camped in pop tents and sleeping bags, lived in the same tent they caught. Their trip was on the Tahquamenon River.

Sister Eugene Marie Hallman started a week of visiting with the Robert Parker family, of 23177 Hawthorne, on Sunday, Aug. 4. She has just completed participation in a retreat in Minnesota and is on vacation.
