Anti Defamation League Fights War On Poverty

The target is poverty and the goal is liquidation in the United States by 1975.
This is the new emphasis of the Anti-Defamation League of Phan Brith, according to Burton R. Shifman, chairman of the ADC in his public statement just issued.

ADC in his public statement pust issued. Shifman's statement endorses the resolution adopted by the ADL National Commission April 21, it is an intensification of programs institication of programs institigated by their Freedom Budget adopted in January 1907, "It is obvious that the efforts a chieve equality for all mem-

The ADL resolution enumerates the causes of poverty they are now determined to attack as unemployment and unapproximation of the control of t deremjoyment substandard pay and madequate bicome, in sufficient social insurance and well'are payments to those who cannot or should not be employed, but bousing, deficiencies in health services, education and training and fiscal politices which tend to redistribute income repressively."

The resolution continues:

"The resolution continues and local governmental remedial programs have been too modest to meet the urgent needs and local governmental remedial programs have been too modest to meet the urgent needs and to ameliorate the decay of our cities. To date an insignificant portion of the course of action delineated by the Freedom Budget has been effected.
