SERIOUS QUESTIONS CONFRONT MICHIGAN FOR DECISION IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.

Are the laws made only to control the poor and to be cast out by the rich?

Will the people approve the auction sale of a seat in the United Senate-"SOLD" to the highest bidder?

The Newberry millions have been known in exclusive circles for forty years, yet Mr. Newberry's campaign managers claim it was necessary to spend $176,000 to introduce him to the people.

Within fifteen years, Henry Ford by his own ability is known to the entire world—Why? Because he believes that the welfare and happiness of all mankind is the most essential thing in the progress of a nation.

Newberry's managers paid $176,000 for his nomination—Henry Ford paid not one cent

The right to live and be respected, is the Ford idea of life.

Think-Which of the two types of men would you have to represent you in the U.S. Senate?

John W. Bailey, candidate for Governor, rises from the ranks by his work. Is introduced by his home folks as absolutely fearless because he has lived his life an honest, honorable man.

s no middle ground—and as Governor he would be Governor not a neutral politician.

President Wilson needs helpers in Congress. If you send the democratic candidates to him you are helping.
