Competition Hot At Local Swim Clubs

Farmington's young swimming enthusiasts are engrossed this summer in competition and training through a program established by the Northwest Suburban League, a league of private swimming clubs.

The league consists of 14 teams and two divisions, seven each in the upper and lower divisions. Three swim clubs from Farmington participating in the league are the Glen Aquatic, Woodbrook and Beachview swim clubs.

The Farmington Enterprise & Observer recently visited the Glen Aquatic Club, Freedom Drive and Farmington Rd., to view a meet between Glen Aquatic and Woodbrook. Glen Aquatic, which is tied for third in the lower division with a 3-2 record, nosed out Woodbrook by three points.

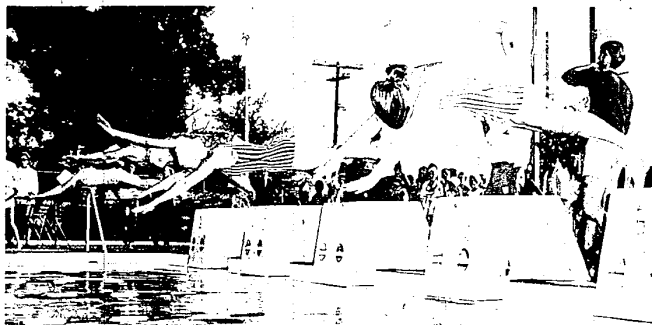

Coach Bill Weier says there are 148 young Farmington swimmers on the Glen Aquatic squad. Meets are held on Thursday nights.

The season, which got underway the end of June, will end with league finals on Aug. 16.
