Your Realtor will be a good edviser when it comes to helping you select a new home. He will tell you that lending institutions will take into account several factors on how much house you can efford. Your age, the size of your family, your newworth, your present income, your type of employment, your future income prospects and large important factors in deciding the amount and length of time of your most-mall are important factors in deciding the amount and length of time of your most-

The time was never better than now. Considering the current in terest rate on home loams, and the long term mortgages available, your monthly payment on a new home [sexcling taset] is about the same as the mostify payment on a new automobile! And remember: interest and real estate tases era deductible. See one of the Realtors advertising in the Observer Want Ad Columns today and let him tell you all about the financing available, about down payments, about all the details you'll need to know to buy a new home.
