A rare bid that attracts considerable attention is an opening six-bid. In the sait this was a fresh hand with 12 sure tricks and requiring an ace or king of trump in partners' hand to make a grand slam.

Today the practice is to use the bid on hands where there is some play for aix where partner holds a yenorough.

This is usually a two-suited hand, it gives the bid more frequency and the opponents can wonder about the wisdom of a sacret.
