

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

AS HAS BEEN the case for the past several years, there will be several outstanding classics on the western suburban area bowling front.

And if previous plans materialize, there will be even competition among the various establishments to host the best of the circuits.

We will be as strong as last year.

George Baehner, proprietor of Wonderland Lanes, commented: "We will have four new teams and I still am on the lookout for several top flight bowlers."

All of our top average men of last season, including Jerry Holsberg, who topped the averages with a 207, will be back to be contained. "so we will be able to hold up the prestige of the Classic."

Over at Westland Bowl, where they departed from the Classic idea a year ago and concentrated on a senior house league, they are going back to the Classic format with the shrimps leagues available.

This is the circuit that bowls on Friday nights and has produced such outstanding stars as Ted Bakstesen, Dick Beattie and a host of others.

AT BEL-AIRE LANES they are going to follow the lines of a year ago with three good circuits: the Classic, the Senior House and the Businessmen's League. These leagues have produced some of the best competition in the area.

At Garden Lanes, the story is the same. With the new pinsetters installed, the bowlers will have ideal conditions and the Classic again will be strong.

These classics all are the outgrowth of the old Detroit Times Classic that had its exception 20 years ago. At that time it was designed to build up spectator interest in the game and the league traveled to different houses each week.

With the passing of the Times, the Classic took on a different look and soon had competitors. It is now the Business All-Star

Redford stars participate in tournament

An all-star contingent representing the best of Redford's Bronze Baseball League is in Joliet, Ill. this weekend to compete in the regional round of boys' baseball in world championship.

Redford qualified for the second step of the take chase by sweeping its double elimination sectional bracket. Redford defeated Garden City Nationals, 7-2, and hosted the Garden City Americans in two straight games, 6-4 and 5-4.

The winner of this weekend's four-team regional advances next week to divisional play at Lafayette, Ind. and from there, to the championship round in Pennsylvania.

A Redford Bronze team, consisting of boys 13 years of age, has advanced to east-state tournament play every season since 1971.

In Thursday League action Monday night, Garden City West rapped Redford North, 9-2, to capture the metro championship and advance to a national regional bracket this weekend at Lincoln, Ill.

Boys 17-30 participate in the Thursday program.
