

A parade of beauty, brains and talent vie for the title of Miss Farmington, 1976, and a chance to capture the Miss Michigan crown.

Holly Ann Schmidt takes Miss Farmington '76 title

By TORRINE MATHIE

Sixteen-year-old Holly Ann Schmidt has taken the title of Miss Farmington 1976. The young woman, who is a senior at North Farmington High School, was crowned Miss Farmington on Saturday night.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmidt, 11141 Fairview, was one of the contestants in the parade of beauty, brains and talent.

The contest was a popular event, and the winner of the title will represent the city in the Miss Michigan pageant.

Being contestant No. 13 was no handicap for the new Miss Farmington. The statuesque beauty, who will enter her senior year at North Farmington High School this fall, is five feet eight inches, weighs 130 pounds.

A vocal rendition of "I Have Confidence" from the "Sound of Music" was belted out by Carol Maurer, who won second runner-up in this contest.
