THE RAY ARVIDSON family of Thorny Briar Road spent a vacation at the T-K or Olson Ranch in Wyoming. It took two days driving to get to the 4,500 acre ranch just 23 miles out of Laramie in the Centennial Valley with the Little Laramie River running through it which provided great trout fishing.

According to Lori and Chris, the two young ladies of the Arvidson family, the food prepared by Mrs. Olson, headmistress of the ranch, and the horseback riding under the direction of Mr. Olson, headmaster of the ranch, and his sons Jim and Bill, was truly great sport.

Guests included Judge Geraldine Ford of the Detroit Recorders Court and several other women lawyers. Judge Sulaeman is senior judge on the court of general jurisdiction in Djakarta, Indonesia. She reports that half of the judges on her court are women. She has been studying in the United States for the past nine months at New York University and is touring our country before returning to Indonesia.

While Judge Sulaeman was luncheoning with women judges and attorneys at the Top of the Flame her husband, who is with the Ministry Trade in Indonesia, was being feted at Hotel Potchartrain by Detroit-businessmen and industrialists. The couple has an 11-year-old son who has spent this year in the United States with them.
