

Committee heads named by JWF Junior division

Neil A. Salovsky of West Bloomfield, president of the Jewish Welfare Federation junior division, has appointed a number of committee chairmen to lead division activities for the coming year. Junior campaign coordinator for the 1977 Allied Jewish Campaign/Israel Emergency Fund effort will be John M. Frank of Southfield, who will also be in charge of cash collections for the division. Other fundraising committee chairmen are Jeffrey N. Born of Birmingham, men's pre-campaign; Joan Salovsky of Southfield, women's pre-campaign; William S. Rubenfar of Southfield, teen campaign; and Eugene Piner of West Bloomfield, youth and school campaign.

The division's year-round education and social committee chairmen are Heidi Press of Troy, Half-Penny Post newsletter; Jonathan Jaffe of West Bloomfield, lecture series; Gary L. Fried of West Bloomfield, liaison administration; Eric C. Oppenheim of Huntington Woods, membership and leadership development; Alan H. Piner of West Bloomfield, orientation; Jane Zukin of Southfield, public relations and historian; Suzanne Rubin of Southfield, social; Ellen Schurer of Birmingham, study group; and Marc G. Whitefield of Birmingham, b'nei mitzvah.

The junior division offers young adults an opportunity to learn about and participate in organized communal affairs and the Allied Jewish Campaign/Israel Emergency Fund, federation's annual fundraising effort.

The Jewish Welfare Federation provides local community relations, education and health and welfare programming and services through its 14 member agencies.

For further information about the junior division contact its director, Lilian Bernstein, at the federation office, 963-3393.

Women exhibit art works

An exhibit of Michigan women's work entitled "By the Hands and Minds of Women" will be shown through Sept. 11 at the Feminist Women's City Club, 2110 Park Ave. in Detroit.

Michigan women submitted over 250 works for selection by the jury, composed of Sylvia Wilkinson Murphy, Anne Marie D'Arena, and Beverly Shankler.

First place went to Jeanne E. Flanagan for her bronze "Atom II." A series of drawings by Adele Garcia received second place, and third place was won by Maryann Zotto-Betts for her ceramic and fiber relief.

Ment awards were received of Pat Bernard for her photography and Rose E. DeLoraine for a conceptual overlay.

Auditions set for singers

The Choralate singing group will begin auditioning for new members for its second season on Sept. 7.

The mixed-choral group, under the direction of Bill Edwards, performs a variety of music from modern to classical, and makes appearances throughout the concert season.

They meet each Tuesday evening in Novi, and membership fees are $10.
