Great books starts again

Great Books discussions for both adults and young people will begin at the Farmington Hills branch next month.

Discussions for adults will begin Oct. 7 at 7:30 p.m. with a new series not used by any previous group. It is entitled "The Search for Meaning." Through works of fiction the series will explore where people look for order and satisfaction in life. It includes both traditional and modern authors.

The books at $9.50 per set, will be available for purchase this month at the Farmington Hills branch.

Junior Great Books discussion groups will meet throughout the school year. The registration fee is $7.

The fourth grade group will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month, 4-5 p.m. beginning Oct. 5 at the Farmington Hills branch.

The fifth graders will meet the second and fourth Tuesday at 7:4 p.m. beginning Oct. 12 at the Farmington Hills branch.

Sixth graders will get together on the first and third Wednesday of each month at the Farmington branch, 7:4 p.m. beginning Oct. 6.

Junior highs will meet the second and fourth Tuesday of each month, 4-5 p.m. beginning Oct. 12 at the Farmington branch.
