

Dayride plays

Dayride, specialists in Top 40 dance music, are appearing at Fanny's in the Troy Hilton Inn, through Oct. 2. With a jazz background and love for every kind of music, Dayride plays nightly, Monday through Saturday, 8:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

Mel Ball, Colours back

Mel Ball & Colours, the musical group who made the record "Come Home America," are home in Detroit for a month-long engagement at Top O' The Ponch, through Oct. 2.

They play for dining and dancing. Tuesdays through Saturdays, in the 25th floor penthouse supper club with the panoramic view of Detroit and Canada.

They have been appearing in Toronto for the last four weeks at the Pinnacle Room on the third floor of the Sheraton Center - Four Seasons.

Mel Ball & Colours are a contemporary vocal instrumental group who play a lot of original material and have a large following in the Detroit area. The group will record an album this fall for the PIP label of Pickwick International, the company which issued their "Come Home America."

Ball and most of his group are natives of Detroit and Michigan. He plays drums and vibes. Female vocalists are Barbara Tini and Jane Prier. Mark Lashlee plays bass; John Williams, piano; and Rich Catoni, guitar.

Top O' The Ponch, in Hotel Pontchartrain at Jefferson Ave. and Washington Blvd., Detroit, features Chuck Murr's seafood and meat specialties, and valet parking.
