

Classes set on arthritis

The Oakland County volunteer unit of the Michigan chapter Arthritis Foundation will present a series of three information classes at Sylvan Lake Lutheran Church, 2000 Figs. W. Bloomfield, at 7 p.m. Sept. 26, Oct. 12 and 27.

Dr. Gilbert Galens, noted rheumatologist, will be the guest speaker for the first Wednesday Phyllis Mowery, occupational therapist from Pontiac General Hospital, will speak Oct. 12 and the Oct. 27 session will deal with the emotional aspects of arthritis on the patient and the patient's family.

These classes are open to the public with-out charge, as a community service of the Michigan Chapter Arthritis Foundation, an agency of the United Way of Michigan.

Soft scoops score

Slightly softened ice cream is easier to scoop and serve. Remove the carton from the freezer and allow about 10 minutes in the refrigerator for a soft and 20 minutes for a half gallon. Return remainder to the freezer immediately after taking out what you need.

Budding ballerinas

Young ballerinas in Barbara Burgess' class in the Farmington Community Center practice for a spring dance recital, and will be back at the center in September for new fall classes.

The teacher offers ballet and jazz classes. Registrations are being accepted now, by calling the center at 477-8404.

Kathy enters Cottey

Kathy Mattmiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mattmiller, 31741 Marbury Road, Farmington, will be a freshman this fall at Cottey College in Nevada. Mo-Cottey is a small residential, two-year liberal arts college for women owned and supported by the 10,000 members of P.E.O. Sisterhood. The group is a philanthropic, educational organization for women.

Mrs. Mattmiller holds a scholarship given to her by the Michigan State Chapter of P.E.O.
