

Morna Shearer performs in "The Red Shoes," a filmed adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen's famous fairy tale. The special program will be shown at 2 p.m. Saturday, on Channel 58, WTVS-TV.

Gangs will be focus of a special series

Two gangs in Detroit will be the subject of a special series of reports being shown on Channel 58, WTVS-TV, beginning Sunday, Sept. 27, on Channel 58.

Reporter Ann Marshall will present a series of reports on the "Summer of Fear" which will include the 8 p.m. news.

Each of the three news and current events programs is being dedicated to the subject of the Black and White Gangs. The first program, "The Black and White Gangs," will be the first of the series and will focus on the gangs and what they hope to gain. The other two programs will be devoted to the lives of the gang members and the impact of the gangs on the city.

The first program, "The Black and White Gangs," will be a production of WTVS-TV, and will be presented by Ann Marshall.

Her area premiere

Mirabal, a 22-year-old Chicago woman with a cult following, began her singing career in New York bars, passing the hat for money. Her premiere performance in the Detroit area will be at the Raven Gallery, 29101 Greenfield in Southfield, from Sept. 14-26. She will sing her own compositions about strength, determination and love, her favorite themes.
