

Finish 2nd in Schoolcraft Invitational

Farmington High runners shine

Stuart Glaffelner, one of Farmington High's best cross country runners, missed the Schoolcraft Invitational last Saturday morning at Cass Bonita Park, but Farmington's other runners performed well enough to give the Falcons a second-place finish in the multi-school meet.

Farmington was runner-up with 145 points, 18 more than first-place Garden City East. Northville High took third with 150 points.

Livonia Stevenson had 183 points. Wayne Memorial 194. Livonia Churchill 196. Dearborn Edsel Ford 208. Dearborn Heights Crestwood 214. Westland John Glenn 228. Livonia Bentley 240. Livonia Franklin 250. Plymouth Salem 263. North Farmington 286. Farmington Harrison participated but failed to finish five runners.

Glaffelner, a senior, suffered a gastric ulcer attack last Friday night and was taken to the hospital, according to Farmington coach Gerald Young. But Farmington juniors Harold Rutla and Hugh Leiden came through, finishing second and third respectively.

The weather was beautiful and the times were real tough," said Young, who watched the first five finishers — Glenn's Ted Unold (15:25.4), Rutla (15:41), Leiden (15:47) and North Farmington's Dave Good (15:49) — shatter the course record of 15:53 set by Edsel Ford's Mike Watson in 1974.

"We didn't run like we wanted to, but Good did his usual excellent job," said North Farmington coach Ed Davis. "He always does a good job for us."

"He wasn't that happy with his performance, but I told him, 'When you break the course record and you come in fifth, it's just one of those things.'"

Another North Farmington runner, sophomore Paul Welch, finished 34th in 18:48. That's one of the better sophomore times I've seen this year," Davis said. "I was pleased and so was Paul."

Farmington High and Farmington Harrison have dual meets on Thursday (Sept. 23). Farmington runs at home (OCC Orchard Ridge Campus) against Livonia Stevenson, and Harrison runs at Waterford West. North Farmington runs next on Sept. 28 at Waterford and Southfield Christian — also have meets this week. On Thursday, Southfield runs at Waterford Kimball, and Lathrup runs at home against Royal Oak Dondero. On Saturday (Sept. 25) Lathrup runs in the Oakland University Invitational, and Christian runs in the Shrine Invitational at Rouge Park.

Area runners pace OCC squad

Two Farmington High School graduates, Arno Sut and Jim Brown, helped Oakland Community College's cross country team defeat Highland Park Community College, 17-48, last Monday afternoon at Detroit's Palmer Park. Sut finished first, recording a 26:21 over the five-mile course. Brown took fifth place in 28:53. OCC's cross country team is coached by Lynn Reed.
