west led the 9 of hearts.

Bob Viseley of Bloomfield Hills and Marc Culberson of Detroit, have a very successful partnership. They have won many national and regional events. The hand in the diagram was played at the Pittaburgh regional earlier this month, Bob found himself as delearer in all notting contract with only elevent as the notting contract with only elevent as the notting of the property of the number of tricks it wins, but also the problem it causes the defense in discarding.

East won the opening heart lead and continued the suit. Bediater played his recommendation of the problem but in this case, they do not.

On dommy's fifth club, declarer played his instant dismond, but East has a problem but in this case, they do not.

On dommy's fifth club, declarer play in last dismond, but East has a problem but in this case, they do not.

On dommy's fifth club, declarer played his trick in the suit well that the suit well that the suit is the suit of the contract; if the diamond king is discarded the queen takes the twelfth trick. If East discards a spude the long spade in the South hand win the last trick.
