

Sisty-LePeau

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Sisy of Sisy Circle Drive in Farmington Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter Nancy to John P. LePeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip W. LePeau, of Eden, Minn. The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Columbia and is currently a graduate of St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn. and is currently studying at the University of Iowa. An Oct. 23 wedding is planned in Iowa City, Iowa.

Pittel-Preston

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pittel of St. Clair Shores, announce the engagement of their daughter Marisa to Radford Preston, son of Mrs. Ben K. Preston of Farmington. The bride-elect and her fiancé are both graduates of Wayne State University. She will receive her master's degree in library science this December from University of Michigan. He will pursue a medical career in Italy, where the couple plans to reside after a Dec. 28 wedding in Detroit's St. Raymond Church.

Club Circuit

MULTI-LAKES FOOD CO-OP will hold a general meeting for old and new members at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 30 in Walled Lake Central High School cafeteria. The school is located on the corner of Oakley Park and South Commerce roads in Commerce Township.

The co-op will organize for another year of cooperative buying.

CLEFT LIP-CLEFT PALATE PATIENTS OF METRO DETROIT at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 30 in the auditorium of Martin Place Hospital East on Dequindre and Eleven and a Half Mile Road, Madison Heights. The guest speaker will be Dr. William Stephenson, consultant for Oakland Schools Speech and Hearing Clinic. He is also a member of St. Joseph Oral Cleft Team. His talk will stress the role parents play in helping their children to develop oral language.

The parents' group meets bi-monthly and publishes a newsletter on alternate months. Information about the group is available by contacting the Oakland County March of Dimes office, 851-8000.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB of Farmington meet at noon Oct. 1, in First United Methodist Church social hall, Grand River and Warner.

Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Cards will be available for afternoon recreation.

Proposition A, on the upcoming November ballot.

FARMINGTON WOMEN'S CLUB meet at 1:30 p.m. Oct. 6, in the home of Eva Pettibone, 3277 Grand River, Apt. C319.

FARMINGTON MUSICALS meet at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 6 in St. John American Lutheran Church, 1225 Gill Road, Farmington for a program members call "A Rare Treat."

The group will host Marilyn Truitt, contralto and Nancy Morrow, organist, who will perform for the afternoon event.

Guests are welcome. Mr. Truitt studied voice with Avery Crowe and was a member of the Kenneth Jewell Chorus. She has been a soloist for the Birmingham Musicals in past years. She will sing four songs, all based on the poetry of Emily Dickinson, by Persichetti; two compositions by Purcell, entitled "When I Am Laid in Earth" and "I Attempt From Loves Sickness To Fly"; a plantation song, "Ma Curly Headed Baby" and "Dear Friends" by Marcel G. Frank.

Mr. Morrow received her master's in vocal music education from the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Iota, the professional music fraternity, and the American Guild of Organists.

She had taught four years in Dearborn School System and filled in one term at Oakland Community College. Presently, she is organist for Calvary Lutheran Church in Southfield and teaches piano privately.

She will play the Prelude and Fugue in A Minor by Bach, "Cuckoo" by Gordon Young, Aria by Flor Peeters, and "Toccata" by Gluck.

Marilyn Wallis will serve as announcer for the program, and Linn Miller will be hostess for the afternoon.

Baptizing for pre-school children will be available in the church nursery available in the church nursery, small charge.

GROVES WALKER AMERICAN LEGION and its auxiliary will hold a joint meeting at 8 p.m. on Oct. 7, in the Legion Hall, 3173 Grand River, Farmington.

THE GLOCKENSPLEIN are looking for new members to join them at their next meeting, scheduled from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Oct. 11, in University Hills Church on Farmington Road, north of I-48.

The group is sponsored by the Farmington Musicals, a group of students from junior and senior high schools in the Farmington area.

All students interested in music are invited to the meeting.

Meetings are held the second Monday of each month, September through June. In addition, programs are held, members attend, and give recitals, perform for nursing homes, and the club awards scholarships to its members.

Ruth Kowalski is president of the group. Her officers are Alicia Bergers, Dan Lochrey, Sue Notestine, and Gayle Dalavak.

This year's advisors, from the Farmington Musicals, are Fern Barber, Mrs. S. Kastura and Mrs. S. Bunin.
