Betty James replaces Diana Lanna as Harpagon's daughter Elies. Reviving their original roles are Harper Jane McAdoo as the matchmaker Prosine, Debornh Eckole as Mariane, Bruce Matley as Valere and David Bederholm as Clenate. The production is directed by Robert T. Harzard, with setting by Enoch Morris, costumes by Daniel Thomas Field and Helen Markovitch and lighting by Benjamin F. Levenberg.

Brochures with information on season tickets and schedules are available from the Wayne State University Theatre Box Office in the Hilberty floby, Cass and Hancock, phone 577-2972. Individual tickets at the regular boxoffice price are also available through J. L. Hudson ticket offices. Additional outlets for student-rate tickets are the WSU Box Store, and the Oakland University Ticket Service.

Boat show set at park

Mt. Clemens and the largest collections of boats and sailing equipment ever assembled in the Great Lakes, including sailboats from Sweden, Canada, California, Florida and New York.

The large sailboats will be displayed in the water, while smaller trailerable boats are displayed on shore. A huge tent houses more than 50 exhibits of sailing equipment.

Show hours are as follows: Thursday, noon to 10 p.m.; Friday, noon to 10 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.-10 p.m.; and Sunday, 10 a.m.-8 p.m.

Charges for the show are adults $3 and children $1 (under 12) years of age). Metropark vehicle entry permits are not required and there is no charge for parking.

relic of the past. Sassy Sue came zipping over to your nd clipped your feet-lang order right to the window. ling through Tod's was the ultimate good time.

Welf, you grow up and so did Ted's. Our car-hip service has been replaced by feur gracious dining rooms. We still have Ted's eriginal feet-long had deg on the lunch manu, but you're more apt to be dining on steemed King Crab legs or reast Prime Rib of beef au jus.

And the entertainment in the car next to yours has long since been replaced by first rate talent on our dinner stage in Garby's. Like Lerie, now entertaining Tuesday through Saturday evenings.

Ted's Old Tewn Inn. We aren't Ted's any mor still the best time around.
