Deposit war up to voters

"They don't have to han the flip top Eventually they'll make a better contain-er," he said Lane says that most businessmen see the deposits as an ineffective way of con-trolling litter.

rolling litter
"About 70 per cent of litter is paper." he said "I don't think that the person who is careless enough to throw a can out of the window would care about the three cents or live cents involved in the deposal." he said that the control of the deposal is not the control of the decrease in titler in Oregon with the potential decrease of highway trash in Michigan as impractical.

it's like comparing peaches and plums. He said. "Michigen is an industrial at said. Organ isn't. "We can't have a clean environment and in industry. Conditions have improved. Cleanliness can be taught at thome. Lane said, and existing legislation can curb lit-tering.

Competitors win in fóotball test

Two Farmington Hills youngsters were among the winners of the purt, pass and lock competition recently conducted by Avis Ford Inc.
They were Richard Olson, 3122 Perrys Crossing, who took a third place in the 15-year-old competition and Jeff Perce. 20332 Olde Franklin, who took a first place in the 15-year-old competition.
