Custom living space

Designer Carole Korn turned a living room-dining room into a constantly useful room by making the conversation area expand. She pushed the dining table against the wall and used a side chair like the ones in the living room to keep the continuity between rooms. All custom fabrics and colors help to make the room and its functions unique in their Farmington setting.

Making it 'HOME'

The 'HOME' is produced each fall by The Observer & Eccentric's editorial staff. The cover story is on pages 10, 25, 27 and 28. The cover photography was done by Barbara McClellan. All other photographs in the section were also taken by Ms. McClellan except those on pages 12, 14 and 31 taken by Patricia A. Beck and those on page 34 taken by Charles Kidd. The cover design was done by William Keith LaRochelle, art director. Editorial material was edited by Mike Arnholt and written by Patricia Beach Smith, home furnishings editor.
