

FARMINGTON ENTERPRISERS

TERRY SEVER of the Farmington Area Jaycees has been named Jaycee of the month for August, according to the October newsletter. Among those qualities making him the top guy for the month of Leo are being a brand new father for the first time, maintaining a growing, young printing business, being the coach, general manager and sponsor of a softball team and for coaching the Jaycees to a fifth place in the state tournament.

Not to be outdone, the Farmington area Jaycees have named their person of the month DEANA NADIAU and CHRIS ELIASSEN grabbed the honors for the job of organizing the concession tent, making posters, counting money and "putting it all together." Also honored were MARY BELLS and JAN BOYKAS. Mary was given the Green Apple Award for being the outstanding new member for her enthusiasm and hard work in the first few months of membership. Jan received the Shoney Red Apple Award for her all around help on the rodeo.

RICHARD GRIBBINS of Farmington Hills has been elected vice-president and treasurer of Service Envelope and Paper Co., Detroit. He previously was secretary.

TOM STEPHENS of Farmington Hills has qualified as a member of the 1974 Star Club of New York Life Insurance Co. The club is composed of New York Life agents who achieved significant sales records in 1973-74.

STUART GROSS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gross of Farmington Hills, has received an honorary mention for a thesis he wrote for nationwide competition sponsored by the BJ Palmer Chiropractic Philosophy Research Committee. Student Research award, Scholarship Committee of Manchester, N.H.

Gross was one of six students enrolled at Life Chiropractic College in Marietta, Ga., to receive the certificate of distinction. He is an Oakland University graduate.

THE NOVI COMMUNITY BAND is seeking new members. The band meets on Mondays at 7:15 p.m. at Novi High School on Taft Road. The band is composed of adult and high school musicians from the north-west metropolitan area. Under the direction of GUY SMITH, the band plays a variety of music, from Bach to Beethoven and makes a number of appearances throughout the year.

THAT FARMINGTON FAMILY OF PHOTOGRAPHERS Bernice, Junebug and Joe Clark, HISS have an exhibit of their work on display in the Fisher Building in Detroit's New Center area.

The display, "Pictures That Tell A Story," will be on display until Oct. 1.

All three, parents and son, have won many national photographic awards. Joe Clark is the author of about a dozen books, many depicting life through photographs and narrative of life in his native Cumberland Mountain area in the South.

The Clarks have a studio on Nine Mile in Oak Park.

Persons interested in submitting items to Farmington Enterprises should address their submissions to the Farmington Observer, P.O. Box 88, Southfield 48077.
