

Grand to receive award from Israel

Sam Grand, of Farmington Hills, will be honored at the Middle East Industry Division of State of Israel Bonds tribute dinner dance, Nov. 3.

Grand is the president and founder of several metal manufacturing plants serving the automotive and aircraft industries. He will receive a special award from the State of Israel for actively promoting, importing and distributing Israeli products to the metal industry.

Grand is a member of the national board of directors of Technion, the MIT of the Middle East.

Handspinners

Betty Dengate, president of the Michigan Handspinners, brings about 40 people together every month to clean fleece, spin it, dye it and turn it into a useable item. Writer Loraine McClish and photographer Harry Mauthe visited the handspinners at their meeting place in the downstairs room of Farmington Community Library and tell about their visit in story and pictures in next week's Farmington Observer.
