The hand in the diagram was played at the Motor City Regional held at Detroit's Cobe Hall last weeking.

The South player rarely preempts and probably should have opened the bidding with one heart. He thought the opponent smight have a spade game so deroided to bid four. Because he had a contract of the optimistic invitation and bid six. NORTH NORTH

Declarer had little hope for the slam even with a heart lead; a finesse has only a 50 percent chance of auccessful. He won the heart in dummy and finessed the diamond queen. Played the spade ten, covered with the jack, dummy a queen and another queen took a sured. The spade ace was canhed, declarer discarding one of his two losing clubs.
