

Halloween drama due

Goblins and ghosts will have a new Halloween haunt in the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium, Oct. 30, when Chicago's Melkin Puppet Theatre performs "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

"Legend" will be presented by Detroit Youththeatre, America's largest center of entertainment for young people, bringing "Something Every Saturday" to the museum's auditorium. Live New York musicals and plays, marionette and puppet shows, dance, and much more.

Children's show due

The Community House Children's Show Series, specially planned to encourage appreciation of good literature and theater, begins its 1976-77 season with the AAUW (Children's Theatre) production of "The Elves and the Shoemaker."

The live stage fantasy will be presented Saturday, Oct. 30, from 1-2 p.m. and again from 3-4 p.m.

This first play in The Community House begins a season of six separate stage productions geared to the elementary age child. All of the productions include colorful costumes, imaginative stage sets and music where needed, as well as audience participation.

Other plays scheduled as part of the popular series include "Winnie the Pooh on Saturday, Nov. 20 (Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre); "Raggedy Ann's Magical Christmas" Saturday, Dec. 11 (Newcomer's Children's Theatre); "The Ugly Duckling" Saturday, Jan. 22 (Center Ring Theatre for Children Production); "Hansel & Gretel" Saturday, Feb. 19 (Henry K. Martin Production); and "Rumpelstiltskin" Saturday, March 19 (produced by Dr. Joseph French of Greenfield Village Playhouse).

Season tickets for all six children's plays are available at The Community

House, representing a price savings over the individual ticket cost. Single tickets can be purchased in advance at The Community House, or at the door if tickets are still available.

Adult chaperones are in the audience at all times. For further information, call The Community House, Bates and Townsend in Birmingham (644-5632).

"About 19 of every 20 new accounts come to us through the Yellow Pages. We know of no better testimonial than that."

Through the years, we've discovered what many businessmen no doubt already know... that the Yellow Pages is the best kind of advertising for anyone who cannot spend millions of dollars establishing themselves as a household name." — Harold L. Kurzmann, Harold Paper Company, Adams Rd., Auburn Heights.

Other Yellow Pages Advertisers are getting these results:

"85% of my custom pillow business is a direct result of my Yellow Pages advertising. The Yellow Pages is fantastic. It's one thing to have a rare and respected craft, but you can't sit back and wait for the money to roll in. The Yellow Pages keeps the customers coming." — Herman Berlin, Pillow Talk, Coolidge Rd., Berkley.

"It has become almost an eight-hour-a-day job for one person to answer all the telephone calls we get. The Yellow Pages is the only medium which has worked for us consistently. I could not put a salesman on the road for the relatively small amount I spend on two large display ads in both the Woodward North and East suburban Detroit directories. Almost all our business comes in over the telephone. We no longer use any other media." — James J. Saad, Quick Made Trophies, E. Nine Mile Rd., Warren.

"At least 50% of our business, and probably more, comes from our Yellow Pages ads. Quite frankly, we could not survive without them."

People with flooded basements decide they can no longer put off the inevitable and that something must be done immediately. What do they do? Go to the Yellow Pages and call for help." — Lawrence M. Sinuk, World Wide Waterproofing, Telegraph Rd., Southfield.
