

Banwell sentenced in income tax case

Quentin Banwell of 3129 Sturbridge Farmington was sentenced Friday to 12 months in prison and given a $500 fine for failing to file federal income tax returns for the years 1973-74.

Banwell, 34, was a self-employed insurance agent. During the years in question, he had gross incomes of $80,072.60 and $73,413.51. He will be required to pay the tax as determined by the internal revenue department, plus interest and penalties.

Banwell pleaded guilty on both counts of income tax evasion on Aug. 20.

Federal Judge James Churchill could have sentenced Banwell to a maximum year in prison and $10,000 fine for each count but agreed with U.S. Assistant Attorney General who prosecuted the case that the sentences should be served concurrently.

Haunted house open to scare all comers

The Farmington area Jaspers are at it again in their quest to scare the living daylight out of all who attend their haunted house this year.

This year's house is on the west side of Orchard Lake Road south of Fourteen Mile in a big red house.

The hours will begin Oct. 22 and run through Oct. 23. Monday through Thursday the house will be open from 4:30-10:30 p.m. Friday it will be open from 4:30-11 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 23, will be from 4:11 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. The house will be open from 4:11 p.m.

Karl Bick, Jasper agent chairman for the haunted house, has thought up some "scary" features for this year's scare fest.

Among some of the items are a seemingly endless maze, a hangman, a haunted well, and more than 10 "haunted" and "ghostly" apparitions and blood-shedding scenes.

Cost is 10 cents. The proceeds will go to provide for new windows and hardware.
