

Club Circuit

AL EPSILON BETA chapter of Beta Sigma Phi has rented one of 60 tables from the Farmington Javettes to raise money in the Javettes arts and crafts show on Nov. 11. Sale tickets are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Farmington High School 12400 Shawway.

ALPHA OMEGRON PI, Northwest Suburban American Chapter, will join the Dearborn Yacht Club in a plant party to be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 11, in Dearborn's Downtown Federal Savings & Loan Bldg.

Members who wish to attend are invited to contact Mrs. William Stokely, 3429 Middle River Road.

The chapter helps to support the American Red Cross as its philanthropic partner.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS have a support group in the West and Lake United Methodist Church, 311 Northport West of Lake and will meet there every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? MY MITTENS, THAT'S WHAT. My very own name is written right on them, personalized with penmanship on the leather trim. The exclusive SFA quilted and lined mittens have the owner's name in the zipper pocket and come completely washable in red, navy, white, or soft acrylic in bright colors. (3 to 4 years, medium (5 to 8 years), large 9 to 12 years, or extra large (13 years and up), 4.50. Children's Collections.

We understand you at Saks Fifth Avenue

Troy, Somerset Mall, Big Beaver at Coolidge • Detroit, Second at Lothrop

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB of Farmington will hold its monthly meeting at 8 p.m. in Farmington Community Center. The program will feature Mrs. Fred Trickett, an accredited national council judge, a first vice-president of the state judges council, and director at large of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan.

Mrs. Trickett's theme will be "Designs for Today and Tomorrow" and she will demonstrate both of these with fresh and dried flowers. Some of her arrangements will be available for purchase.

Hostess chairman for the evening is Mrs. Paul Chisholm.

The group is now finalizing plans for a standard flower show to be called "Deck the Halls in 1980." The pre-Christmas show will be held in the historic Morris House 1100 E. Jefferson and is chaired by Mrs. Michael Bove.

The show will include drier and table decorations, package items, dried arrangements and hand-crafted exhibits all in the 1980 theme for Dec. 4.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS, Farmington Southfield Chapter, meets at 8:30 p.m. Nov. 11 in St. Francis R.O.C. Hall, 21900 Middle Belt, to see "The Alleviators," the chapter's fun theater group.

Music for dancing during the afterglow will be furnished by The Freedom Road.

The group is now in the throes of planning "Metro Dance" for single parents throughout the metropolitan area to be held Nov. 29 in Warren Valley Country Club.

All meetings of Parents Without Partners are restricted to parents who are living in single-headed households.

SHOLEN ALLEIGH INSTITUTE presents an Open House Nov. 12 at 8:45 p.m. at 2855 Middle Belt, Farmington.

The guest speakers will be Sarah and Morris Friedman, who were the official delegates from the Institute to World Conference on Yiddish and Yiddish Culture in Israel. The talk will be mostly in English.

The meeting is open to the public by reservation by calling Mrs. Schechter at 431-6111.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN, Farmington Branch, will meet at 7:45 p.m. Nov. 17 in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile.

In observance of the AAUW International Night, Dr. James Otinga will talk on "International Affairs: Problems and Prospects." He is affiliated with the department of political science at Oakland University, has earned his masters and doctorate degrees in political science from Michigan State University and a bachelors degree in theology.

He is the author of "Communism: A Tarnished Promise."

FARMINGTON NEIGHBORS CLUB will lunch at Farlane and take a tour of Farlane Mansion on Nov. 17. Reservations will be taken until Nov. 16 by calling Frances Porch, 454141.

FARMINGTON HILLS JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB will meet at 8 p.m. Nov. 17 with the theme of "Barbie Knight." 3214 013 Timber Road, Farmington Hills.

Jack Broderick will present a program on classical guitar, playing tunes from different countries and giving a little history of the instruments he will play.

The women also will conduct a silent auction of handcrafted items.

Guests are always welcome to the monthly meetings and are invited to contact Shela Wink at 831-7672 for reservations.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, West Bloomfield Farmington Branch, will take consensus on the election laws study during their Nov. 12 meeting.

The meeting goes under way at 9:30 a.m. in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile.

All LWB meetings are open to the public. Reservations for luncheon, babysitting services or membership information can be obtained by contacting the league at 341-2929.

WOMEN'S AMERICAN ORT, N-8000 Chapter, will meet at noon Nov. 11 at Haines Ridge Club House, 11290 Haines Drive, Farmington, to hear Rabbi, Steven T. Wine of Birmingham Temple.

Rabbi Wine will discuss "The 11th Tribe" by Arthur Koestler.

Mrs. Ruth Korditsky is chairman for the day.

Donation of $1 will be asked.

SENIOR CITIZENS DROP IN CENTER is open every Monday and Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Masque Temple on Grand Boulevard, Farmington Road. Guests are invited to bring a sack lunch if they wish. Office and tea are furnished.

FARMINGTON AREA LIONS meet at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 16 for a dinner meeting in Roman Forum. The club, which has been active in the community for more than 21 years, was awarded a number of awards during the year.

The annual Bird and Seal making program, which has a major role in the sale of Christmas cards, comes in business establishments through the Farmington community.

Wine Johnson will take membership inquiries by calling him at 474-4191.

WOMEN'S AMERICAN ORT, Country Club Chapter, will meet for a luncheon meeting at noon Nov. 16 in the West Bloomfield home of Mrs. Alan Schechter. The program for the day will be "An Introduction to Transcendental Meditation."

The meeting is open to the public by reservation by calling Mrs. Schechter at 431-6111.

ORIT is a non-profit organization which supports schools all over the world for underprivileged youngsters who desire vocational training.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN, Farmington Branch, will meet at 7:45 p.m. Nov. 17 in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile.

In observance of the AAUW International Night, Dr. James Otinga will talk on "International Affairs: Problems and Prospects." He is affiliated with the department of political science at Oakland University, has earned his masters and doctorate degrees in political science from Michigan State University and a bachelors degree in theology.

He is the author of "Communism: A Tarnished Promise."

FARMINGTON NEIGHBORS CLUB will lunch at Farlane and take a tour of Farlane Mansion on Nov. 17. Reservations will be taken until Nov. 16 by calling Frances Porch, 454141.

FARMINGTON HILLS JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB will meet at 8 p.m. Nov. 17 with the theme of "Barbie Knight." 3214 013 Timber Road, Farmington Hills.

Jack Broderick will present a program on classical guitar, playing tunes from different countries and giving a little history of the instruments he will play.

The women also will conduct a silent auction of handcrafted items.

Guests are always welcome to the monthly meetings and are invited to contact Shela Wink at 831-7672 for reservations.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, West Bloomfield Farmington Branch, will take consensus on the election laws study during their Nov. 12 meeting.

The meeting goes under way at 9:30 a.m. in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile.

All LWB meetings are open to the public. Reservations for luncheon, babysitting services or membership information can be obtained by contacting the league at 341-2929.

WOMEN'S AMERICAN ORT, N-8000 Chapter, will meet at noon Nov. 11 at Haines Ridge Club House, 11290 Haines Drive, Farmington, to hear Rabbi, Steven T. Wine of Birmingham Temple.

Rabbi Wine will discuss "The 11th Tribe" by Arthur Koestler.

Mrs. Ruth Korditsky is chairman for the day.

Donation of $1 will be asked.

SENIOR CITIZENS DROP IN CENTER is open every Monday and Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Masque Temple on Grand Boulevard, Farmington Road. Guests are invited to bring a sack lunch if they wish. Office and tea are furnished.

FARMINGTON AREA LIONS meet at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 16 for a dinner meeting in Roman Forum. The club, which has been active in the community for more than 21 years, was awarded a number of awards during the year.

The annual Bird and Seal making program, which has a major role in the sale of Christmas cards, comes in business establishments through the Farmington community.

Wine Johnson will take membership inquiries by calling him at 474-4191.

WOMEN'S AMERICAN ORT, Country Club Chapter, will meet for a luncheon meeting at noon Nov. 16 in the West Bloomfield home of Mrs. Alan Schechter. The program for the day will be "An Introduction to Transcendental Meditation."

The meeting is open to the public by reservation by calling Mrs. Schechter at 431-6111.

ORIT is a non-profit organization which supports schools all over the world for underprivileged youngsters who desire vocational training.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN, Farmington Branch, will meet at 7:45 p.m. Nov. 17 in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile.

In observance of the AAUW International Night, Dr. James Otinga will talk on "International Affairs: Problems and Prospects." He is affiliated with the department of political science at Oakland University, has earned his masters and doctorate degrees in political science from Michigan State University and a bachelors degree in theology.

He is the author of "Communism: A Tarnished Promise."

FARMINGTON NEIGHBORS CLUB will lunch at Farlane and take a tour of Farlane Mansion on Nov. 17. Reservations will be taken until Nov. 16 by calling Frances Porch, 454141.

FARMINGTON HILLS JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB will meet at 8 p.m. Nov. 17 with the theme of "Barbie Knight." 3214 013 Timber Road, Farmington Hills.

Jack Broderick will present a program on classical guitar, playing tunes from different countries and giving a little history of the instruments he will play.

The women also will conduct a silent auction of handcrafted items.

Guests are always welcome to the monthly meetings and are invited to contact Shela Wink at 831-7672 for reservations.

THE RB SHOPS
ROYAL OAK, BIRMINGHAM, FERRISDALE, SOUTHFIELD, TEL: TWELVE, PORTIAC, TEL: HURON
ROCHESTER, NORTH HILL PLAZA, MEADOWBROOK VILLAGE MALL, WARREN, TECH PLAZA

Three Great Looks ... star in the winter fashion scene

Timeless as the sands... these classic, beautiful looks to wear anytime, anywhere in the world.

THE CLASSIC TRENCH... an updated wool-blend channeled in muted shades of grey and taupe. Perfect for foggy nights, international intrigue and Humphrey's Bogart. With breezy, flanged skirt to match. Sizes 6 to 16. 120.00

STORMY WEATHER... snuggle up in a Raccoon-lined storm coat when those winter winds start to blow. Wrap-style with contrasting piping and a real winner in beige or black. Misses' sizes 8 to 16. 160.00

PACESETTER CAPE... mix the plaid, match the skirt... put it all together on a charming cape to top off your fall and winter wardrobe. In deep muted tones. Misses' sizes, small, medium, large. 120.00

Coat Dept. all stores

B Siegel
WOODWARD AT STATE
7 MILE AT LIVERDIA
EASTLAND CENTER
BIRMINGHAM
THE VILLAGE PLAZA
DEARBORN
NORTHLAND
LANSING
STERLING HEIGHTS