Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mahinske

Emily Jean Stewart and Lawrence Mahinske were wed in First Baptist Church of Hornell, N. Y., in a double ring ceremony conducted by Rev. Edward Sutton. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eilan Stewart of Canastota, N. Y., and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mahinske of 2644 Sprungbrook Drive, Farmington Hills. The bride fashioned her own floor-length gown with chapel train, high neckline and roll collar, made of satin and ivory voile over tulle. Her diadem veil, trimmed with satin, was attached to her headband with baby's breath. Her bouquet was a sheaf of bleached pampas grass with ivory rabbit's foot, accented with brown wheat, rust miniature and button strawflowers. Mrs. Sherwood VanDyke served as her sisters' maid of honor with attendants

Susan Hudson and Karen Bossard. They were clad in shades of brown and rust while they carried matching bouquets. Thomas Strand served as best man with ushers Stephen Mahinske and Michael Hart. The newweds received 150 guests in the church before leaving for a wedding trip to the Catskill Mountains. The bride graduated from Canastota Central School and Michigan State University. She is now employed by the American Red Cross. The groom graduated from Our Lady of Sorrows High School and Michigan State University, where he majored in television and radio production. The couple will make their home in Chicago.

Fraternity offers music scholarships

The Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity, is offering a $200 scholarship to an area senior girl who is planning to make music her major area of study next year in college.

All inquiries will be taken by the group's scholarship chairperson, Mrs. Norman Krupp, 349-1331.

Applications must be returned to her at 612 Cresthill, Royal Oak 48073 by Nov. 30. The application should include a self-addressed post card to record audition time which will be held some time in February.

The society was founded at the University of Michigan in 1902 to form chapters of music students and musicians to uphold the highest ideals of musical education, to further the development of music in America and to provide a stronger bond of musical interest and understanding between the United States and other countries.

A BRONZE PLAQUE, commemorating the founding, was recently given by Exxon Corp. and now hangs in U. of M. Music School.

Sigma Alpha Iota is affiliated with many national musical organizations. Among its national projects is supporting Pan's Cottage, Mt. Desert Island, New Hampshire. It has a Bronze music project gives grants for music therapy, assists music work in Hawaii and Japan, contributes to UNESCO and sponsors "People to People Music" committees.
