Carpet shopping can often be frustrating

If you have walked through the major "supermarket" carpet stores lately, so have probally become frustrated for the state of the state

me of create tackground for the saw of some of the carpet have writed your families' needs. What are the traffic patters, what are the ages of the members of the household, not is your style of living more formal or do you prefer the account lack. Answers to these questions may mean the inflerence between shaps, plush, twists or sculptured, for each has different endurance and maintainner advantages. Don't look for aggravation, the proposed of the control of the cont

the ultimate in luxury and be practical as well. Also be aware that certain plush carpets show footsteps, so if you are one who runs for the vacuum and rake after each person leaves the house, forget shag, bypass plush and head for the sculptured department.

The newest trend in carpet fashion, and one which! I predict will be used more and more by homeowners as well as commercial markets, is the tight, flat twists mostly available in shakes of grey and being or "greece" colors. This carpet has bonus qualities it won't show soil, will not show foottepic, it will withstand heavy traffic and will keep a secret if it doesn't see a vacuum. It is multiy, textured, neutral and affordable.

Carpeting is a major investment, like a machine. It should perform well and run smoothly for many years. Do your window shopping with this in mind and enjoy your footing.

garden in the four cycles of the year. Many people have become acquainted with Bromeliads as house plants. They have thick leaves which means to water sparingly. In many of the species the flowers are in simple or branches clusters. The bracts are colorful. Most of those grown indoors are epiphytes which means that they can perch in concertion are made affined gathered around their roots. However, after flowering they seem to "fall apart" in arguarance in the middle of the plant. Van mill seem to the fall seem to the seem to "fall apart" in arguarance in the middle of the plant.

and NO degrees P.

You probably lower the temperature in your house at night and bromeliads like the change of temperature. If you have the variety which has a vise formation in the center, be sure to always have some water in the vase. If that plant refuses to flower, seal the plant in a paper bag with an over-ripe apple for one week sping gas from the over-ripe apple, eithjene, will cause the miniation of flower buds. Watch that ethylene gas near house plants. They don't like it as a rule.

Hold off on late pruning of any everg-reens until Holday time unless you have window boxes. They will look all dressed up with cuttings of evergreens in them. If the location is in an approp-rate place you may enjoy placing some taken light as smooth the boughts after Thinkingstong.
