Club Circuit

THE NARDINEERS, senior citizens who meet in Aarden Park United Methodist Church, will create a "Mitten Tree" when the group meets this month, to be sent to the Farmington Goodfellow for distribution to needy families in the area.
At the time of the year, the members will participate in a gift exchange.
The group programs a variety of activity for themselves, in addition to regular meetings in the church, which generally begin with lunch at noon. They invite others to join them, by calling the church office for information.

Their annual fall trip was to Philadelphia for a historical tour.
Something new on the agenda are ma-classes in four fields of interest: antiques, television, plants, and H-E-Spot, which concerns political issues.

They have returned from their holiday shopping spree and are now looking forward to another holiday outing, a visit to Crutcher House in Bloomfield Hills when it is decorated for the season.

PIONEER WOMEN. Greater Detroit Council is represented by Lilian Shapiro in an extensive three-week seminar in Israel this month.

The seminar was arranged by Pioneer Women in cooperation with the Jewish Agency and Na'amat, the sister organization of the group in Israel, and will include lectures by leading Israeli experts on Zoroastrian, cultural, political and Israeli society, the absorption of new immigrants, and talks on the political role of women in Israel.

Seminar participants will visit the various types of installations now supported by Pioneer Women, a child care center, vocational training school for girls, an immigrant adaptation center, an agricultural training center, a legal aid center, for women, family counseling service, a workers' center, and an Arab women's club, as well as with the groups' sister organization.

Under the terms of the participation, the seminarists have agreed to make at least two weeks of expanding the programs and efforts of Pioneer Women in their local and surrounding communities.

OVEREATERS' ANONYMOUS. meetings, Thursday in Walnut Lake United Methodist Church, 301 North St., Walnut Lake. The new chapter is the only chapter of the organization in this area.

Bonnie Wright, speaking for the group described the members'Anonymous as a fellowship of compulsive overeaters, patterned after Alcoholics Anonymous.

The recovery, she said, is based on both physical and spiritual. There are no dues.
Club meetings begin at 7 p.m. Mrs.
Wright will take telephone inquiries by calling her at 424-3210.

AMERICAN LEGION. Graves Waterford and his assistants will hold a joint meeting at 8 p.m. Dec. 2 in the post, 31572 Grand River.

Guest for the evening will be Helen Carter, president of the Legion's 44th District in Michigan.

DELTA OMICRON'S local alumnae chapter will hold its Christmas meeting on at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 3 in the Farmington Hills home of Mrs. Charles S. Bishop. Delta Omicron is an international music fraternity.

The musical program will be given by pianist Jeanette Ramsey of Dearborn Heights. Choral singing will include several songs of various styles, directed by Helen Grimes, a Bloomfield Hills pianist.

Delta Omicron was founded in 1899 at the University of Minnesota at St. Paul. In Michigan there are four collegiate and two alumnae chapters.

YOUNG WOMEN OF JEWISH NATION

LILIAN SHAPIRO

AL FUND will hold its annual book review and take party at 10 a.m. Dec. 6 in the home of Marina Nisim, 2405 Birchcroft, Farmington Hills.

The Gates of Hell to the World will be reviewed by Adele H. Hedges.
Members are asked to bring their libraries, or a $2 donation and also write coplaint articles for the upcoming spring au-tion.
