Commissioner Joseph R. Montante (R-Orchard Luke) denounced the bills as an infringement of the state on local community rosing restrictions

The vote at the Dec. 2 board of commissioners meeting was 204. Among the opponing were Mary Mead Dearborn (D-Birmungham) and Lawrence Pernick (D-Southfield).

MONTANTE CHARGED the bliss in their substitute forms would allow up to B retarded adults to be placed in a residential non-regardless of local planning restrictions such as special use permits.

This takes away local control and puts it in the hands of the state. Montante said, adding that the onus of appeal rests on the community, and that appeals would be decided by the director of the state Department of Social Services as ar-bitrator.

These bilts would die troy neighborhood planning. They would destroy freedom. This would he troy America. This is bil-shevism.
