LABOR DAY MORNING will see some 15,000-20,000 persons walk southbound across the four-mile-wide Straits of Mackinne. It is the one day of the year when pedestrians are allowed on the Mackinne Bridge. The annual stroll has become one of the highlights of the tourist season and is now recognized as the "world's greatest walking event." Automobile traffic is maintained in the two west langs. Walkers may start out from the St. Ignace side only from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. No starts after 10 a.m.
