Israel consul grants awards

Metropolitan Detroit synagogues which have made special sales efforts of Israel bonds were recognized at an awards dinner held recently.

Synagogues supporting Israel's economic development through the sponsorship of Israeli bond dinners received the Solidarity Award from the Israeli government. Organizations participating in High Holy Day appeals and responding to Israel's needs through large bond purchases, received special Torah covers.

Four synagogues were the recipients of both.

Chicago Israeli Consul General Elhad Avriel officiated and personally presented the awards.

Attending the event and accepting awards for their synagogues were Edward Treutle, president of Young Israel of Oak Woods, a Torah cover; Rabbi A. Irving Schumpp of Beth Moses, a Torah cover and the Solidarity Award; Rabbi Israel Halpern of Beth Abraham-Hulela a Torah cover and the Solidarity Award; and Harry Berry, president of Shaarei Zedek, a Solidarity Award.

Also Max Nosanchuk of Beth Achum, a Torah and the Solidarity Award; Robert Ruch, vice president of Adai Shalom, the Solidarity Award; Dr. Matthew Borovoy, secretary of Bnai Moshe, the Solidarity Award and Frank Friedman, of Beth Shalom, the Solidarity Award.

Snowmobile trails

Thirteen miles of snowmobile trails are now open from 8 a.m. until dusk each weekend during the winter months at Addison Oaks County Park.
