The administration, in a newsletter scheduled for mailing this week, also pointed out that the district hasn't been asked to boost is millage rate since 1969. The present rate is 33.9 mills ($33.9 per $1,000) for operations and approv-al of the renewal and increase on Jan. 17 would boost that rate to 36.9 mills.

THE FOUR INFORMATIONAL THE FOUR INFORMATIONAL meetings are scheduled for 8 p.m. tonight (Thursday) at Botsford School, 1951 Eathers; next Tuesday, Jan. 11 at Grandview School, 1931 Louise, both in Livonia; Edgewood School, 1225 St. Francis, Farrinington Hills, and on Wednesday, Jan. 12, and the school board office on Thursday, Jan. 13, at 2820 Eight Mile, Farm-ington Hills. 5252,000 a year. The administration said in its news-hetter that the board needs $5,075,000 rext year to operate the same level of school programs and services. If the millage renewal and increase are defeated, the board would be balance the budget. "Such a move would totally elimi-rate many wonderful and necessary ductational programs in the district." The administration said. School afficials also pointed out that being levied in the past only the millage levied in the past only the general point of the school afficience the budget and is some years levied a rate less than the maximum allowed by voters.

THE DISTRICT'S officials also noted that the operating costs contin-ue to climb despite a drop in student enrollments and faculty cuts.

In the past four years, the district's budget has increased from 4.15 per cent to 7.29 per cent a year. If the mil-lage renewal and increase on the Jan. 17 ballot are approved, next year's budget will increase an estimated 3.58 per cent per cent.

The current student enrollment of 3,057 is expected to drop 12 per cent in the next three years, to 2,573. Most of the docrease is expected in elementary grades, projected to drop from the current 1,508 to 1,313 in three years. Justice 1,313 in the years
