JA slates first '77 sales fair

The first Junior Achievement sales fair of 1977 will be Jan. 29 in the Orchard Mall, Maple and Orchard Lake Road, West Bloomfield, when several hundred teen-age JA members will set up display booths and sell their handmade products to shoppers.

The sales fair will run from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Items for sale range from plants, terrariums, hanging planters and glass routers to coat hangers, lamps, toys and small household gadgets. Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization designed to give high school students a first-hand look at the business world. There are 24 JA centers throughout southeastern Michigan involving 6,500 young people. Guided by adult advisors from business and industry, teens run their own small corporations and gain a realistic understanding of the free enterprise system.
