Teammate Dan Petroff won the diving event with 169.55 points.
"Hornacek was the only double winner in the meet, and he just missed qualifying for state in the 100 free by a couple of tenths of a second. Jay Emerson dropped two seconds off his backstroke time. The kid who beat him (Carl Hayne) is listed sixth in the state, and he just touched out, Jay by two-tenths of a second."
North Farmington, now 22 overal, had a double winner in junior Clay Scowrold against Adams, He won the 200 free (1:56.6) and the 500 free with a time of :24.2.

Cage program receives money

The Southfield Parks and Recreation Department's youth basketball program is $500 richer thanks to a recent grant from the Optimist Club of Southfield. The money was used to purchase $30 uniform-type T-shirts, according to Butch Wingfield, of the Parks and Recreation Department. The basketball program includes 30 teams and 420 players.

"This Off-Broods "This Off-Broadway hit of the 1973-74 season, is high voltage theatre — written compactly and loaded with heavy, and sometimes, rough language. Director Charles Nolte deserves credit for pulling off a fast-paced production and getting the most out of the actors. Nolte, no newcomer to Meadow Brook, has given us the best play of the season in this production."

DON NEWMAN, OAKLAND PRESS

"Medoff's play, to be sure, is stuffed with violence and sexual cruelty but the shock he seeks is one of recognition, not cheap thrills."

LAWRENCE DE VINE, DETROIT FREE PRESS
