W. Bloomfield nips Ferndale

West Blooomfield went to the final

West Bloomfield went to the final second of Tucsday's non-league battle before it could seal a 55-54 victory over Ferndale.

The Engles kept a slight edge until the third quarter when the Lakers threw a half-court zone press that resulted in repeated Ferndale turnovers. West Bloomfield, led by the all-around play of Mike Gass, took the lead and stretched it to six points with one minute to go.

iead and stretched it to six points with one minute to go.
Ferndale slowly hit back in the remaining time coming within one point with Paul Jackson's driving lay-up with one second left. He was fouled on the play, but his free throw attempt lailed. West Bloomfield snatched the rebound to clinch the victory.

"IT WAS A GOOD win— what else can I say." said Laker coach Al Dick-en. "Our shots were hitting in the sec-ond half after a cold start.

"The press forced their mistakes in the fourth quarter. We needed this the routin quantum one."

The game started slowly as both teams weren't hitting in the first quarter. Each played mantonman defense and committed numerous turn-overs ending in a 10-10 tie.
