We started here in Michigan just 130 offices ago.

NOW OVER 3,100 OFFICES COAST TO COAST

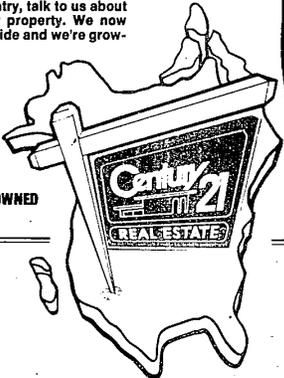

Things move fast in CENTURY 21.

Now it's been a little over two years since we started hanging our signs here. Now we're serving the state of Michigan from over 130 locally owned and operated offices. Each office is a full-service real estate center ready to help you with the many details of buying and selling homes and property. Our people can help you with the title work, financing, paper work ... all the intricacies of real estate transactions. Since each office is locally owned, you'll be dealing with people who know the area. And you'll find they're nice people to know.

Whether you're thinking about a move just a few blocks away or across the country, talk to us about buying a home or selling your property. We now have over 8,500 offices nationwide and we're growing every day.

Judging by our growth in these few years, there was a real need for our kind of service. And maybe this wraps up the reason why ...
