Junior tennis program popular

Junior World Team Tennis (JWTT) is in full swing again this year at the Square Lake Racquet Club in Bloomfield Hills.

This program, which is unique to Square Lake, is the most popular program within the club's department of tennis education. It is excellent junior tennis on a fun and highly competitive basis. The teams are made up of members from the junior excellence program.

Most of the participants are in the 14-18 age group and JWTT provides a huge stepping stone so they can prepare themselves for high school and tournament competition.

This year, there is a total of six teams, with each team playing the other once. The five-week competition is begun with a "kick-off" party, whereby the team captains, appointed by commissioner Steve Willinger and general manager Dean Pinchoff, draft their players "pro-style."

their players "prostyle." Each captain selects his or her co-captain and six players. Every team then gets together to decide upon their team name. Competing this year are: captain is listed first, followed by co-captain Wilk's Devastators, captained by Soth Wilkinson of Bir-mingham and Meg Meurer of Bloomfield Hills; Abel Bagels, cap-tained by Dave Epstein of Farm-shirt uniforms which display their team names.

Before the start of play each week, the captain must submit the lineup to general manager Pinchoff for approval before it is put up on the boards. This helps assure that players will be facing opponents of equal ability. Team versus team competition consists of eight singles matches (eight game pro sets) and four doubles matches (sixgame pro sets). A total of 36 matches are played each evening.
