

Zionists plan 2-day seminar

Judith and Leo Diesendruck will conduct a dialogue on "Is American Zionism Different?" at a seminar scheduled Feb. 5-6 in Laikin Auditorium, Labor Zionist Institute, 28555 Middle Belt.

The Diesendrucks have spent their lives working for Zionism and Israel. He is presently the chairman of the Executive of the American Zionist Federation. She is director of the World Zionist Organization's Council of the Arts and Sciences and national executive vice-president of Pioneer Women.

The seminar-dialogue will be split in two segments. Saturday, at 8 p.m. they will discuss "Is American Zionism Different?" Sunday, at 1 p.m. they will discuss "The Zionist Thrust in the Community—the Special Role of Labor Zionism."

The event is sponsored by the Labor Zionist Alliance and Pioneer Women. The seminar is chaired by Evelyn Novack. Sessions will be chaired by Ben Harold, Ruth Miller, Elsie Harold, Helen Naimark and Rena Goldsmith.

Mordine and Company

Jan Erkert, second from left, a resident of Farmington Hills, returns to the area with the Shirley Mordine Dance Co. for two performances. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Erkert, 39825 Sugar Springs, a graduate of North Farmington High School and the University of Utah. She is one of six dancers in the company which will perform in Academy of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Feb. 7, at 8 p.m.; then in Birmingham Temple, 28611 Twelve Mile, Farmington Hills, Feb. 8 at 8 p.m. For the Monday performance, reservations can be made by calling the academy, 646-8900. For the Tuesday performance, tickets may be purchased at the door. The company was brought here by Claire Levine, project director for the grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts, and a teacher at the Academy of the Sacred Heart.

Presbyterian women plan breakfast

The Women's Association of First Presbyterian Church of Farmington will sponsor a reservation-only breakfast Feb. 23, featuring Irene Auberlin, founder of World Medical Relief.

Now 80 years old, Ms. Auberlin started the non-profit organization 23 years ago with a staff of 300 elderly volunteers. Since that time the organization has furnished hundreds of hospitals in developing countries with medical equipment and supplies. World Medical Relief now fills about 45,000 prescriptions a year, at no charge, to indigent aged in the tri-county area.

Graf-Videoq

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Graf of Gilman Street, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Agnes, to Eric Andre Videoq, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Videoq of Hayden Street, Farmington.

The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Franklin High School and is employed by F.W. Myers and Co., customhouse brokers and foreign freight forwarders. Her fiance graduated in 1967 from Juliet P. Curie College in Paris and is employed by Chrysler Corp.

They will be married May 28 in St. Robert Bellarmine Catholic Church, Redford Township.
